THE BROWNS HAVE A UNIFIED AND FOCUSED PHILANTHROPIC MISSION WITH “BROWNS GIVE BACK” THAT EXTENDS THROUGHOUT NORTHEAST OHIO.

Led by Dee and Jimmy Haslam, Whitney and JW Johnson, COO David Jenkins, EVP/ GM Andrew Berry and Head Coach Kevin Stefanski, the entire Browns organization - coaches, players and front office members - are dedicated to creating meaningful impact in the communities in which we live and work by investing their time and resources under the Browns Give Back platform.

The target of these endeavors is devoted to three focus areas:
EDUCATION, YOUTH FOOTBALL and SOCIAL JUSTICE.

“The entire Browns organization recognizes the importance and accountability in giving back to the community that provides us with so much support on the field and beyond,” said Managing and Principal Partners, Dee and Jimmy Haslam. “Through our Browns Give Back initiative and the Cleveland Browns Foundation’s Stay in the Game! Network, we’re able to prioritize our efforts and create lasting impacts in the spaces of education, social justice and youth football throughout Northeast Ohio.”

---

The Browns’ emphasis on education and youth football advances their unwavering commitment to prioritize the well-being of children, who symbolize the future of our city. When the children of Northeast Ohio succeed and accomplish their goals it becomes a collective victory, for everyone in the area, including the Browns. The same goes for volunteerism, which is encouraged and amplified through First and Ten, not only locally but in the cities in which fans and teammates live.

The Cleveland Browns are committed to assisting in the development, safety and growth of youth and high school football throughout Northeast Ohio with year-round programming for players, coaches, officials and parents. Through camps, clinics and other initiatives, the Browns goal is to promote healthy social, emotional, intellectual and physical development of youth by enhancing opportunities for youth football participation and education.

CLEVELAND BROWNS FIELD PROJECTS

As part of the Browns' dedication to education, youth and high school football as well as Northeast Ohio, Dee and Jimmy Haslam, JW and Whitney Johnson and the Browns organization have helped install 15 high-quality synthetic turf fields in the past eight years at schools and community organizations throughout the region. While each field is lined to permit frequent use by various sports groups, including football, soccer, and more, one primary focus is to offer youth educational tools through these "outdoor classrooms," which allow opportunities to participate in extracurricular activities that support attendance, school engagement and overall personal growth. The site selection process prioritizes promoting equal access to beneficial educational resources to everyone throughout the community, no matter their race, gender or economic status.

The project launched in May 2016, when the Haslams and Browns made an unprecedented commitment in the NFL to new surfaces at five Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) schools over a two-year span. During the community impact project's planning stages, CMSD identified five locations that would create the most significant results throughout the city. This past spring marked the groundbreaking of Garfield Heights High School field in the Garfield Heights City Schools district, bringing the total to 15 fields since 2016.

Throughout the region, the new field installments have provided areas for physical education classes and local community members have also received additional access to the spaces, given many time limitations related to grass field maintenance have been eliminated with the implementation of synthetic turf.

The field projects also provided spaces for learning and afterschool activities, which is a pivotal for increased attendance. Through the Cleveland Browns Foundation's Stay in the Game Network! the organization is continuously looking for resources to help increase student attendance, and the field projects have contributed to that. The surfaces created as part of the field projects have also housed Browns youth football programming including flag, Rookie Tackle and 11-man play as well as the annual youth football camp programs with Browns Legends offered free to youth at each summer at each field project site.

HELMETS PROGRAM

HELMETS, presented by Meijer and in association with University Hospitals and Xenith, aims to advance player safety by awarding two eligible Ohio area high school football programs with $25,000 in new Xenith football helmets. Since 2016, the Browns have donated nearly 3,700 helmets to youth and high school football programs throughout Northeast Ohio. As a prerequisite, programs must commit to enhancing player health and safety by enrolling in USA Football's medically endorsed Youth Football Certification course, which offers certification clinics to educate coaches about concussion recognition and response protocols, proper equipment fitting, shoulder tackling, heads up blocking, heat emergency preparedness and hydration and sudden cardiac arrest. The Browns most recently awarded 300 custom helmets to the Cleveland Muny Football League, Liberty High School and Brush High School throughout Northeast Ohio during 2023 season.

JR. BROWNS

As part of the Cleveland Browns' commitment to assisting the development, safety and growth of youth and high school football throughout Ohio, Jr. Browns NFL FLAG is the team's official youth football program committed to children 5-14 years (K-8th grade). It provides boys and girls opportunities to play in one of the NFL's largest organized non-contact football leagues.

YOUTH FOOTBALL CAMPS

The Cleveland Browns Youth Football Camp Series, in partnership with University Hospitals, helps kids 2nd - 8th grade sharpen their skills as they work on all the basics, from passing and kicking to blocking and defense. Participants get the opportunity to be coached by local youth & high school coaches, participate in daily flag & tackle football competitions, challenges and experience once-in-a-lifetime activities! Two camp sessions in 2024 took place at CrossCountry Mortgage Campus, training facility of the Cleveland Browns, where the 2024 Browns Rookie class served as guest coaches on the first day of each camp. Additionally, 150 athletes received scholarships to the camps to ensure kids who wanted to play had the opportunity to.

LEGENDS CLINIC

With the new high-quality synthetic turf fields throughout Greater Cleveland, Akron, Lorain and Toledo, the Browns have helped create new opportunities to play football in the region. To further their support, the Browns in the summer of 2018 introduced the Cleveland Browns Legends Clinic. Through the program, nearly 5,650 kids have already had the opportunity to attend a free clinic where Browns alumni serve as Play Football Ambassadors while high school coaches offer up tips and hands-on instruction. LEGENDS Clinics, presented by Office Revolution and in association with University Hospitals, Cardinal Credit Union and Ohio CAT, hosts Browns Alumni and local high school football coaches who will offer tips and hands-on instruction, including lectures, fundamental football skills stations, contests and non-contact games in a high-energy, fun, and positive environment. This event is open to boys & girls ages 8-14 and is great for all athletes of all skill levels, whether they are new to the game or have been playing for years.

ROOKIE TACKLE

Launched in 2016, Rookie Tackle is a modified game to introduce tackle football to youth players. Designed by USA Football, the Rookie Tackle model is part of the Football Development Model, which serves as a bridge game from flag football to traditional 11-player tackle football.

In 2017, Rookie Tackle was implemented in Northeast Ohio and currently has 15 leagues competing.

Unlike traditional 11-player tackle, all players will have the opportunity to learn and play multiple positions. A 7-on-7 format allows for higher coach-to-player ratio leading to advanced player skill development. Another noticeable difference is the smaller field to fit the right age, right stage of the player.

In line with other sports' development models, Rookie Tackle offers young participants an opportunity to be introduced to or progressively learn more about football fundamentals, strategy and the game itself before advancing to full 11-on-11, 100-yard competition that is equivalent to the high school, collegiate and professional ranks.

OFFICIALS PATHWAY PROGRAM

As part of the partnership between the National Football League (NFL) and the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) to help increase recognition and participation of high school football officials, the Cleveland Browns' nominated officiating crew was selected as the first ever NFL High School Football Officials 'Crew of the Year.' In continuing the efforts to increase participation and recognition of high school football officials, the Browns have also launched the "Officials Pathway Program" which supports, recognizes and promotes officials at all levels of the game.

BROWNS GIVE BACK - YOUTH FOOTBALL

HIGH SCHOOL GAME OF THE WEEK

The Cleveland Browns High School Game of the Week (HSGOTW) returns this fall for the 15th consecutive year, presented by Ohio CAT in association with ForeverLawn. Since the program began, more than eight million votes have been submitted for weekly matchups posted on ClevelandBrowns.com, making the Game of the Week page one of the most visited pages on ClevelandBrowns.com. Last year, Canton South High School Football Head Coach Matt Dennison was named the 2023 Cleveland Browns High School Coach of the Year. Through the program, $24,000 was distributed to support multiple teams' programs' health and safety. In addition, we were proud to celebrate Glenville football as the first-ever CMSD school to win back-to-back state champions.

ADAPTED FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Established in 2011 as the first competitive adapted football program in Ohio, the Cleveland Browns Adapted Football League gives children and adults of all abilities the opportunity to participate in an organized, competitive and developmental sport that would otherwise be unavailable to them. The primary focus for each player includes (1) skill development, (2) social interaction and (3) physical exercise. The league is organized into two divisions, including one for players using wheelchairs. The Adapted Football League began its 14th season in June 2024, in partnership with Achievement Centers for Children and serves over 120 athletes each year.

GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL FLAG FOOTBALL

The Browns and Northeast Ohio Flag Football (NEO Flag) launched the first-ever All-Girls High School Division in the state of Ohio in 2021. Together the Browns and NEO Flag have been working to elevate girls flag football to promote equality in sports offered at the high school level. Ultimately, the Browns aim to ensure Girls High School Flag Football becomes a sanctioned varsity sport under the Ohio High School Athletic Association. The league featured nine teams and more than 125 athletes during its first season and has grown to 51 teams and over 750 participants.

This year, the Browns hosted the first ever Girls High School Flag 'A New Era Summit' at Cleveland Browns Stadium, bringing together over 350 athletes and 40 coaches with the purpose of connecting young female athletes with potential career opportunities in sports. The 2024 Girls High School Flag Championship Tournament was also hosted this May at Cleveland Browns Stadium, with Head Coach Kevin Stefanski and Browns cornerbacks Greg Newsome II and Justin Hardee Sr. in attendance.

Girls flag football is gaining popularity in high schools and colleges throughout the country, and women's flag football is officially a National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) varsity sport - thanks to a two-year partnership between the NAIA, the National Football League (NFL) and Reigning Champs Experiences (RCX).

Launched in 2014, the Cleveland Browns First and Ten campaign is the team's community program, designed to inspire fans to help their communities through volunteerism.

@BROWNSGIVEBACK

Following the tragic death of George Floyd in 2020, and as protests spread from coast to coast and across the globe, Browns Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Andrew Berry on June 5 sent a passionate email to all Browns employees. Ultimately, it served as the inspiration for a call to action that now includes Browns fans through the team's #BeTheSolution campaign. Berry's email started with a message of empathy and sympathy to those who have struggled to focus on the day-to-day not only because of what was transpiring in the wake of Floyd's death, but also the tragedies involving Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery and other victims representing the African-American community. In his email, Berry encouraged staff to take one of three significant steps to educate themselves and/or make a donation to an organization committed to social equality initiatives. Berry's call to action encouraged the organization to be instruments for change and since its inception to the Cleveland Browns organization, programming has been put in place:

Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship: The Browns created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship in 2021 to provide opportunities for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. The Fellowship honors Bill Willis, who helped break the color barrier in the NFL and played for the Browns from 1946-1953. Ashton Grant, the first recipient of the team's Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship, earned a full-time role with the Browns as an offensive quality control coach in 2022 after two years as a fellow and is now the team's offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach. Israel Woolfork was the second recipient of the fellowship and recently was named the quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals. Nemo Washington joined the Browns in 2023 as the third recipient of the fellowship. In his role, he works closely with the running backs.

Build The Bridge: The Browns partnership with Build the Bridge through #BeTheSolution was established by Cleveland Heights coaches Mac Stephens and Kahari Hicks and Lorain Head Coach Damion Creel. Build the Bridge strives to create a coalition of coaches, players, parents, administration and community members to foster the success of student-athletes through social-emotional, educational, and athletic advancement. The program creates opportunities for all team members to build relationships and mutual respect between diverse communities, regardless of their race, class or creed.

Cleveland's Ali Summit Civil Rights Trail Marker: In September 2023, the Cleveland Browns and the Cleveland Restoration Society unveiled Cleveland's Ali Summit Civil Rights Trail Marker at Cleveland Browns Stadium's south plaza. The Ali Summit Civil Rights Trail marker is about the legendary meeting that took place on June 4, 1967, co-developed by Browns Legend Jim Brown with the Black Economic Union and a group of leading Black professional athletes - mainly Browns athletes - to support boxer Muhammad Ali, who repeatedly refused to serve in the United States military in Vietnam. The group played a pivotal role in shaping a new concept of Black liberation, emphasizing financial independence and providing job training to disadvantaged youth, at the Negro Industrial and Economic Union headquarters on Euclid Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio.

Cleveland Huddle: The Cleveland Huddle began in February 2021 in alignment with the team's Black History Month celebration and #BeTheSolution initiative to assist Black-owned restaurants while also providing food relief to individuals in need. To date, the program has served over 12 different restaurants and homeless shelters.

Cleveland Huddle Pathway: The Browns created the Cleveland Huddle Pathway program in 2024 to expose local high school students in the Stay in the Game! Network to the many career opportunities available in sports, aside from being an athlete. Students were invited to CrossCountry Mortgage Campus, given a tour of the Browns offices and training facilities, and learned about working in sports from a panel of front office staff.

Inspire Change Jim Brown Changemakers Award: As part of the NFL's 2022 Inspire Change Changemaker Awards, one of which is honored by each of the league's 32 teams, the Browns announced their accolade would be called the "Inspire Change Jim Brown Changemakers Award" to honor Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Brown, who was a civil rights leader during and beyond his football career. Brandon Chrostowski, Cleveland Chef and Restaurateur who owns Browns social justice partner EDWINS Leadership and Restaurant Initiative, was the second-ever recipients of the award and received a $10,000 contribution as part of the recognition, as well as tickets and travel accommodations to Super Bowl LVII in Arizona.

CL3 Alliance: In July of 2020, the Browns, Cleveland Cavaliers and Cleveland Guardians teamed up to form the CL3 Alliance, a social justice partnership focused on four pillars—education, law enforcement, voting, and community engagement. The Alliance has hosted 18+ Conversations for Change, encouraging dialogue between hundreds of youth and law enforcement officers. Head Coach Kevin Stefanski has also been influential in furthering the team's #BeTheSolution efforts through his Uniting Neighbors events. Through community-centric events, Stefanski has aimed to create meaningful engagement between Cleveland youth and Cleveland safety forces.

As part of the league's Inspire Change initiative, the Cleveland Browns stand in solidarity through their #BeTheSolution initiative with all the people across our community and country making the commitment, effort and sacrifice necessary to demand and work together towards positive change. Over the past five years, the organization has distributed over $2.5 million in grants that impact aligned social justice initiatives. The Cleveland Browns organization is committed to becoming an instrument for change in the following areas:

1. Economic advancement through a focus on championing Black & minority-owned businesses and supporting the re-entry process.
2. Police and community relations.

EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute: The Browns have invested in the areas of criminal justice reform as well as re-entry programs by annually supporting EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute—including more than $400,000 in grants since 2017. Founded in 2007, EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute gives formerly incarcerated adults a foundation in the culinary and hospitality industry while providing a support network necessary to their long-term success. To date, less than one percent of EDWINS graduates have been reincarcerated. During the five years of the partnership, the Browns have helped fund Leadership Training, Expansion/Creation of both the Butcher Shop and Family Housing, in addition to helping fund curriculum that over 450,000 inmates have access to. In May, EDWINS partnered with the Cleveland Browns in support from the Cleveland Browns Foundation to announce the "Pathways to Ownership Program" which will empower business owners from disadvantaged backgrounds by leading them through a comprehensive six-week accelerator program toward establishing successful restaurant ventures. With $300,000 secured and nearing the goal of $500,000 for the program's first year, EDWINS is committed to fostering the development and achievement of all its participants.

JumpStart: In partnership with JumpStart, the Browns aim to help bridge resource gaps and accelerate economic outcomes for black and minority-owned small businesses throughout the City of Cleveland and Northeast Ohio. Since joining forces with JumpStart three years ago, the partnership has held four Small Business Impact Showcases—a demo-style competition where program participants use their knowledge and skills to present their pitch to a panel of judges for a chance to take home up to $10,000 to grow their business. In addition, two Small Business Training Camps were hosted at Cleveland Browns Stadium where participants learned fundamentals of securing small business capital from industry leaders and business advisors, including keynotes, workshops, business networking and a four-minute pitch competition featuring Cleveland-based entrepreneurs vying for opportunity to take home cash prizes to grow their business. The partnership has resulted in over 25 minority and black-owned businesses experiencing growth in significant employment and revenue.

20th Anniversary Entrepreneur Showcase Event: In celebration of the 20th cohort class of JumpStart's Small Business Impact Program, 5 local entrepreneurs pitched their business growth plans in front of judges at the House of Blues in Cleveland. Originally launched in 2016, the Small Business Impact Program is a 12-week business intensive, helping entrepreneurs build skills, navigate challenges and grow. The program has graduated nearly 200 small business owners and deployed more than $2.3 million in grants and loans. Owner of Unbar Café, Melissa Garrett, was awarded $20,000 following her pitch presentation by Cleveland Browns Legend, Josh Cribbs, Browns' RB Nyheim Hines and QB Jameis Winston along with civic and county executives also in attendance.

In an effort to fully support the NAACP's Freedom Fund and their mission to ensure the political, educational, social, economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate race-based discrimination, the Browns have been avid contributors and sponsored the 2024 Cleveland NAACP Branch Freedom Fund Dinner hosted at Hotel Cleveland.

Legal Aid: To support individuals facing housing challenges or potential eviction, the team has funded a full-time position with Legal Aid through its partnership, encompassing $240,000 in funding. Legal Aid, a free service for its beneficiaries, secures justice and resolves fundamental problems for those who are low-income and vulnerable by providing high-quality legal services.

DEE AND JIMMY HASLAM

MANAGING AND PRINCIPAL PARTNERS

SCHOOL UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE | HOMETOWN KNOXVILLE, TENN. | NFL EXPERIENCE 14TH YEAR | BROWNS EXPERIENCE 13TH YEAR

Dee and Jimmy Haslam are committed to restoring championship football in Cleveland. To best position the team for success, the Haslams have consistently invested in the organization and its facilities to provide the best resources available while working diligently and responsibly in partnership with the City of Cleveland and the City of Berea.

The Haslams have created three primary focus areas to set the team's culture in Cleveland and help direct all important processes and decisions for the organization. The club's standard is centered on providing a consistently winning team on the football field, taking exceptional care of the team's fans by providing a premier experience throughout the year and striving to make a positive impact in the Northeast Ohio community with an emphasis on education, youth football, and social justice.

In addition to the Browns, Dee and Jimmy also serve as the CEO and Chairman of the Haslam Sports Group (HSG). After the family acquired the Columbus Crew in 2019, they formed the Haslam Sports Group (HSG). In 2023, the family secured a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks, as the NBA Board of Governors approved an HSG ownership share purchase, giving the family-run conglomerate ownership stakes in three of the five major North American professional sports leagues. The Bucks investment also includes control and operation of Fiserv Forum; the Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin Sports Science Center; the team's training center; the Wisconsin Herd, the Bucks G League affiliate; and Bucks Gaming, the team's 2K League affiliate.

HSG's mission is to engage and unite communities through premier sports and entertainment experiences. It strives to create world-class organizations that achieve sustainable success, but also redefine the fan experience, and give back to their region while serving as stewards of true community assets. HSG's current portfolio includes the Cleveland Browns, operating rights to the Columbus Crew, a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks, and current investments in Misfits Gaming Group, StatusPro, Jackpot.com, Lyte, Cast Iron Media, Wicket, ChargeFUZE, WNBA, ManCan and Courtside VC.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

The Haslam Family is committed to helping children and families reach their full potential by removing barriers and providing equal access to quality education and community resources. They are committed to creating measurable, sustainable and meaningful positive change in these areas.

The Haslams are deeply immersed in supporting programs for youth that improve chances for academic success and motivate children to go to school. They have also focused on renovating football and soccer fields throughout Northeast Ohio, Columbus and Knoxville. These community assets are used for sports and recreational programs that keep children and families active, engaged, and inspired.

The Haslams have refurbished many Cleveland public schools' athletic fields and installed 14 high-quality synthetic turf fields across Northeast Ohio. The efforts have also been focused in Knoxville, providing funding to transform 13 fields at area high schools. As part of the Crew's year-round efforts to grow participation in the game of soccer and impact youth education, the Club's mini-pitch initiative now encompasses six locations.

"We are committed to creating opportunities for our youth so that they can reach their full potential, and getting to school every day and staying engaged sets the foundation for their success and the future of our state," said Dee Haslam. "Through the Stay in the Game! Attendance Network and our installation of youth soccer and football fields in Ohio and Tennessee, we want to help students and districts access the resources they need to excel in the classroom and beyond."

Launched in 2019 to increase attendance in the state, the Stay in the Game! Attendance Network—a partnership between the Cleveland Browns Foundation, Columbus Crew, the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce, and Harvard University's Proving Ground—formed collaborations with districts and schools to provide resources created by industry experts to address chronic absenteeism. This past May, Battelle, the Ohio-based, science and technology company became a partner and the network host for

The Stay in the Game! Attendance Network which now services 92 partner school districts and almost 350,000 students in Ohio through their collective effort to positively impact attendance and engage students.

Aligned with that focus, the Haslam 3 Foundation donated $4.5 million to education-based programs that give school-aged children more access to three arts organizations in Cleveland: Playhouse Square, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and the Cleveland Orchestra.

The Haslam 3 Foundation has also recently made a $2 million leadership gift to the United Way of Greater Cleveland and another $2 million donation to the Pelotonia for cancer research with $1.5 million specifically directed towards Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia (CLL) research.

In 2023, the Haslams established the new University Hospitals Haslam Sports Innovation Center because the health and well-being of the athletes and the communities in which they live and work are of the utmost importance to them. The Haslams know it is a unique opportunity to invest in sports medicine, creating new technologies and innovations to improve performance and contribute to the future of sport while helping to create healthier athletes.

Dee and Jimmy also launched the Haslam Sports Group Diversity and Opportunity Fellowship in 2021. Designed to improve the pipeline of diverse future sports industry leaders, the year-long sports business fellowship provides a unique, immersive opportunity to recent college graduates at the Columbus Crew and Cleveland Browns.

Dee and Jimmy have led the Browns' efforts and impact in the social justice space. The Browns have hosted three social justice summits: two that brought together the Cleveland Police Department with Cleveland Metropolitan School District high school students to create a forum for open and honest dialogue about social injustice and another that brought community and civic leaders to the Browns facility to engage players and the entire organization. Since 2022, the Browns, through their social justice efforts, have supported minority and black-owned businesses through a partnership with Jumpstart, a Northeast Ohio-based, nationally recognized venture development organization providing capital, services, and connections to help entrepreneurs grow and corporations innovate.

Dee and Jimmy have received several honors for promoting diversity and inclusion. Jimmy was honored by the Cleveland branch of the NAACP at its 105th Anniversary Celebration Freedom Fund Dinner, and the Haslams received their first award as members of the NFL in 2014 when they were recognized by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul' Tank' Younger Award for promoting diversity within NFL front offices.

The Haslams also worked strategically and passionately to bring the 2021 NFL Draft to Cleveland, knowing the impact it could have on the community to host such a signature event. Dee and Jimmy Haslam were presented with the Maltz Heritage Award, recognizing their transformational leadership, civic engagement and philanthropic contributions in Northeast Ohio.

The Haslams also have always been committed to the Knoxville community and are dedicated to positively impacting the region. In 2020, The Haslam family donated $35 million to Knoxville's Lakeshore Park to improve baseball fields, soccer fields, and other amenities outlined in the park's master plan. "Green open spaces are vital for our children and adults alike, and conservation of spaces like Lakeshore is necessary to preserve the beauty and natural resources of this area," Dee conveyed. Dee and Jimmy helped co-found the Haslam Scholars Program in 2008. The program offers unique, in-depth academic enrichment for top students at the University of Tennessee. In December 2019, the Haslams helped open the doors to the Haslam-Sansom Ministry Complex in the Lonsdale community of Knoxville, Tenn. The $8 million privately funded project by the Haslam and Sansom families consists of 30,000 square feet and includes two fields, which can be used for soccer or football, a gymnasium with two full-sized basketball courts, a chapel, a community room, and a medical clinic. It was built for the Emerald Youth Foundation, and the complex will serve more than 1,400 young people within Emerald and help hundreds of families in the underserved Lonsdale neighborhood.

COLUMBUS CREW

In January 2019, the Haslams expanded their sports interests and investments when they reached an agreement with Major League Soccer to operate the Columbus Crew. After only two seasons as investor-operators, the club captured MLS Cup 2020, their second championship in league history. In 2023, the Crew brought the second championship to the Haslam Family when they captured another MLS Cup, their third overall, with a 2-1 victory over LAFC. The Crew opened their newly constructed downtown Columbus stadium, Lower.com Field, in July of 2021. Designed to complement the city of Columbus' modern, dynamic, and diverse characteristics, Lower.com Field anchors a mixed-use development neighborhood called Astor Park. The club also completed construction of a world-class training facility named the Ohio Health Performance Center in June 2021. Dee was named to MLS's Board of Governors.

AWAY FROM PROFESSIONAL SPORTS

A native of Knoxville, Jimmy began his career at Pilot Corporation in 1976. In 1980, he was named vice president of sales, development, and operations. He grew Pilot to be the largest travel center company in the US, from 96 travel centers in 1996 to over 800 fueling locations in 2023, selling ~14bn gallons of fuel a year and ~$3bn in food and merchandise. Jimmy Haslam became CEO in 1996 and, later, chairman of the board for Pilot Company from 2020-2023. Jimmy led the Company through a series of transformational milestones that strengthened its capabilities, and Pilot became the 5th largest private Company in the US with $3.2bn EBITDA in 2022 (17% CAGR). These milestones included the merger of Pilot with Flying J and transactions with Marathon Ashland Petroleum, Williams, Speedway, Mr. Fuel, and Speedway-Wilco, which grew the Company's network and established Pilot Flying J as an industry leader. In January 2024, Pilot Corporation sold to Berkshire Hathaway.

Jimmy's civic involvement includes service on the board of directors of Anderson Media Corporation, the American Federation for Children (AFC), and the PREP Public Schools Board. Having served on many community boards, Jimmy now focuses on School Choice and quality education choices, as well as his passion for the Haslam College of Business and Haslam Scholars at the University of Tennessee. To help further advance the NFL, Jimmy is a member of the league's business ventures, media, and Hall of Fame committees and chairs the investment committee.

HASLAM'S - UNIVERSITY HOSPITALS DONATION

In November of 2023, Dee and Jimmy Haslam donated $20 million to establish the University Hospitals Haslam Sports Innovation Center, which will primarily focus on research and technology in the field of sports medicine, with the end goal of increasing performance and injury reduction. The center will be led by James E. Voos, MD, who currently serves as chair of the University Hospitals Department of Orthopedic Surgery. # ANDREW BERRY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

SCHOOL HARVARD UNIVERSITY | HOMETOWN BEL AIR, MD. | NFL EXPERIENCE 16TH YEAR | BROWNS EXPERIENCE 8TH YEAR

Andrew Berry was named the Browns Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager on Jan. 28, 2020. Berry re-joined the Browns staff after serving as Vice President of Player Personnel from 2016-18.

During his four seasons as Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager, Berry has helped build rosters that have accounted for two 11-win seasons and two playoff appearances. Since 2020, the Browns are 37-30 (.552), the highest-winning percentage for the team over a four-year stretch since 1986-89.

In 2023, the Browns had seven players selected to the Pro Bowl, the club's most since sending eight in 1988. During his tenure, Berry has inked five of those Pro Bowl players (G Joel Bitonio, DE Myles Garrett, TE David Njoku, G Wyatt Teller and CB Denzel Ward) to contract extensions, while WR Amari Cooper was acquired via trade and LB Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah was a second-round draft pick in 2021. In total, the Browns have had 19 Pro Bowl selections since 2020, the most by the team over a four-year stretch since 1987-90 (21).

In his first season at the helm, Berry shaped a roster that helped the team to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. Berry used an aggressive approach to improve the roster during his first offseason, including inking Garrett to a five-year contract extension and signing unrestricted free agent RT Jack Conklin. Both Garrett and Conklin went on to earn first-team All-Pro honors in 2020, while Bitonio and Teller were each second team selections. Berry also drafted offensive tackle Jedrick Wills in the first round of the 2020 NFL Draft, who made a successful transition from right tackle to left and earned All-Rookie Team Honors from the Pro Football Writers of America.

Prior to the 2021 season, the Browns signed RB Nick Chubb to a three-contract extension. Chubb, a four-time Pro Bowler, has finished second in the NFL in rushing yards twice (2019 and 2021) and third once (2022). During the season, the Browns inked Bitonio and Teller to contract extensions. Bitonio, a six-time Pro Bowl selection and five-time All-Pro honoree, and Teller, a three-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro honoree, were both signed through the 2025 season. During the 2021 NFL Draft, the Browns selected CB Greg Newsome and Owusu-Koramoah with their first two picks. Both players were named to the PFWA's 2021 NFL All-Rookie team.

Berry helped re-shape the Browns offense with two trades during the 2022 offseason. The team acquired five-time Pro Bowler Cooper and three-time Pro Bowl QB Deshaun Watson. The team also signed three-time Pro Bowler Ward and one-time Pro Bowler Njoku to contract extensions prior to the 2022 season.

Despite the club being ravaged by injuries in 2023, including season-ending injuries to Chubb, Conklin and Watson, the team was able to win 11 regular season games. The Browns became the seventh team in the Super Bowl era (1966) to earn at least one win with four different starting quarterbacks in the same season. Watson finished the season 5-1 as a starter and QB Joe Flacco went 4-1 as a starter. Flacco, who was first signed to the Browns roster on Dec. 2, was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year. Defensively, Berry assembled a roster that went on to lead the NFL in several categories including total defense (270.2 yards per game), passing defense (164.7 yards per game), third down percentage (67-of-230 for 29.1 percent) and first downs allowed (253). The team's 270.2 net yards allowed per game were the fewest allowed in the NFL since the 2014 Seahawks (267.1) and the fewest allowed by a Browns team since 1957. The Browns also set a franchise record for sacks in a season with 48.

In his first stint with the Browns, Berry first worked under Executive Vice President of Football Operations Sashi Brown followed by General Manager John Dorsey. He helped lead all talent evaluation efforts for the club, including college prospects and NFL free agents. He also helped in overseeing the club's scouting department and worked closely with other high-ranking members of the front office.

During Berry's first three drafts with the Browns, the team selected at least one future Pro Bowler every year: LB Joe Schobert (fourth round, 2016), Garrett (first round, 2017), Njoku (first round, 2017), Ward

(first round, 2018) and Chubb (second round, 2018).

In between his stints with the Browns, Berry served as the Vice President of Football Operations with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2019. In his one draft with the Eagles, Philadelphia used a second-round pick on RB Miles Sanders, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in scrimmage yards with 1,327 and set an Eagles rookie rushing record with 818 yards.

Berry also spent seven seasons (2009-15) in the Indianapolis Colts front office, including his final four as pro scouting coordinator. He started with the Colts in 2009 as a scouting assistant and was promoted to pro scout in 2011 before being elevated to pro scouting coordinator in 2012. During his time in Indianapolis, the Colts won four AFC South titles, made five postseason appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XLIV. From 2009-15, Indianapolis won 67 games, the sixth-most in the NFL during that span.

In the Colts' front office, Berry managed the free agency process, scouted upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players and players from other professional leagues. He also assisted with college scouting, preparation for the NFL draft and participated in contract negotiations during free agency.

Berry graduated cum laude from Harvard University with a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in computer science in four years. While at Harvard, he was a four-year starter as a cornerback and was a three-time All-Ivy League team selection and an All-America honoree. He totaled 125 career tackles and five interceptions playing for the Crimson.

Berry was one of five finalists for the John Wooden Citizenship Cup, which is awarded to the nation's highest-achieving student-athlete who best displays character, teamwork and citizenship. He was a finalist for the Draddy Trophy as the national scholar-athlete of the year and was named the 2009 Football Championship Subdivision Athletic Director Association Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In June 2020, Berry sparked the #BeTheSolution campaign to emphasize education and encourage others to implement action for ending social and racial injustice practices. Berry created the challenge internally with an email to the Browns organization and donated $8,460 to the NAACP Legal Defense Fund for efforts after at least 50 employees completed one of the following in honor of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery and many more who tragically lost their lives: 1. Spend at least 8 minutes and 46 seconds (in honor of Floyd) on one of a number of educational or dialogue items provided in the email and submit a short written or video reflection on what they learned or will do moving forward. 2. Sign up for any social activism initiative. 3. Donate anything to a social activism cause. The Haslam family pledged to match every dollar raised and contributed to the organizations of employees' choice to a social justice nonprofit. The Browns staff raised more than $185,000 in a two-week span for 14 different charities. Berry later invited fans, players and members of the media to join in the fight to #BeTheSolution.

In 2022, the Browns received the inaugural John B. Wooten Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. The award honors NFL teams that embody workplace diversity, equity and inclusion across the hierarchy. The Browns have filled their business and football operations departments with multiple fellowships and minority hires that have helped the organization grow. Among the several diverse hires Berry has made was Kwesi Adofo-Mensah, who served as Vice President of Football Operations from 2020-21, until he was hired as the General Manager for the Minnesota Vikings in 2022. The Browns also hired Catherine Raiche as Assistant General Manager and Vice President of Football Operations, the highest-ranking female football executive in the NFL.

Berry and his wife Brittan have two boys, Zion and Kairo and a girl, Eden Ruth.

DAVE JENKINS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

SCHOOL BALDWIN WALLACE UNIVERSITY | HOMETOWN EAST ROCHESTER, N.Y. | NFL EXPERIENCE 21ST YEAR | BROWNS EXPERIENCE 21ST YEAR

Dave Jenkins is in his 21st season with the Browns and sixth as the team's Chief Operating Officer. As COO, Jenkins leads the team's daily business operations and long-term vision, directing all organizational goals related to the business, including financial management, revenue generation, marketing, stadium operations, government relations and administration. He is also leading the team's future stadium planning process, including working with city, county and state elected officials along with civic and business leaders to create a viable project that improves the fan experiences and attracts large-scale events to drive economic activity that benefits the region.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Browns, Jenkins also serves as the COO of Haslam Sports Group (HSG). He played a pivotal role in the Haslam and Johnson families' creation of HSG, after they acquired the investor-operator rights to Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew, which officially transferred to HSG and partner Dr. Pete Edwards on Jan. 1, 2019. Jenkins was highly involved throughout each stage of an expedited franchise transition that kept the original MLS franchise in its rightful home city.

After acquiring operating rights to the Crew, HSG leadership directed the successful construction of Lower.com Field – a finalist for SportsBusiness Journals' 2022 "Sports Facility of the Year" award – and major renovation of the OhioHealth Performance Center. Under HSG, the Crew also raised the MLS Cup in 2020 and 2023, their second and third league titles in club history.

Jenkins also helped the family secure a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks, as the NBA Board of Governors approved an HSG ownership share purchase in 2023, giving the family-run conglomerate ownership stakes in three of the five major North American professional sports leagues. The Bucks investment also includes control and operation of Fiserv Forum; the Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin Sports Science Center, the team's training center, the Wisconsin Herd, the Bucks G League affiliate; and Bucks Gaming, the team's 2K League affiliate.

HSG's mission is to engage and unite communities through premier sports and entertainment experiences. It strives to create world-class organizations that achieve sustainable success, provide a best-in-class fan experience, and give back to their region while serving as stewards of true community assets. Jenkins vets all HSG sports and entertainment investment opportunities and leads the strategic evaluation across all entities to ensure operational alignment while creating cross-organizational efficiencies. HSG's current portfolio includes the Cleveland Browns, operating rights to the Columbus Crew, a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks and current investments in Misfits Gaming Group, StatusPro, Jackpot.com, Lyte, Cast Iron Media, Wicket, ChargeFUZE, WNBA, ManCan and Courtside VC.

Jenkins acted as one of the Browns' primary advocates, along with Dee and Jimmy Haslam, Whitney and J.W. Johnson and Haslam Sports Group executives, to bring the NFL Draft to Northeast Ohio. On May 22, 2019, Commissioner Roger Goodell and the NFL announced that Cleveland would host the 2021 NFL Draft, in partnership with the City of Cleveland, Greater Cleveland Sports Commission and Destination Cleveland. Hosted April 29-May 1, Cleveland Browns Stadium and the lakefront served as the main hub for the 2021 NFL Draft in Cleveland, one of the country's largest events responsibly held with comprehensive COVID-19 protocols since the start of the pandemic. The event welcomed approximately 160,000 NFL and Browns fans in-person, including the league's NFL Draft Experience within Cleveland Browns Stadium, and averaged 6.1 million viewers across TV and digital platforms, making it the third most-watched Draft in league history.

Prior to being elevated to COO of the Browns, Jenkins spent three seasons as the team's Executive Vice President and five as Chief Financial Officer. He oversaw all finance-related departments of the organization – budgeting and strategic planning, financial reporting, audit and risk management – and in 2016, added stadium operations, legal, information technology and administration to his duties.

Joining the Browns in October 2004 as a financial and business analyst, Jenkins also held positions as the club's director of finance (2006), vice president of finance (2007-10) and senior vice president of finance & administration (2010-12). In 2007, he was the team's representative at the National Football League's management training program at Stanford University and was a participant in the Leadership Cleveland Class of 2009.

Jenkins began his professional career at Arthur Andersen LLP, where he served as a senior auditor from 1997-2002. He also worked in business development and auditing at KPMG LLP, Proviti Inc. and STERIS Corporation prior to joining the Browns.

Jenkins, who is on Baldwin Wallace University's Board of Trustees, is a member of the board of directors for the Cleveland Browns Foundation, the Downtown

Cleveland Alliance, the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission, and Cleveland Development Advisors, and previously contributed as a board member of the MetroHealth Foundation, Cuyahoga Community College Foundation, Achievement Centers for Children, Greater Cleveland Food Bank, the Berea Chamber of Commerce and Lakewood Catholic Academy. While with the Browns, he also served as an adjunct professor at his alma mater, Baldwin Wallace University, where he taught a class on finance in the sports industry.

A 2018 Cleveland Crain's Business C-Suite COO honoree, Jenkins is a native of East Rochester, N.Y. and earned his B.S. in business administration from Baldwin Wallace in 1997. He now resides in Strongsville with his wife, Ada. The couple has two college-aged sons, Tony and Sonny.

RENEE HARVEY

VICE PRESIDENT, CLEVELAND BROWNS FOUNDATION

SCHOOL IDAHO STATE UNIVERSITY | HOMETOWN DENVER, COLO. | NFL EXPERIENCE 23RD YEAR | BROWNS EXPERIENCE 23RD YEAR

Renee Harvey is in her 23rd year with the Browns and currently serves as Vice President and Executive Director of the Cleveland Browns Foundation. Named to the position in 2013, Harvey manages all long-term strategies and day-to-day operations for the Foundation and its commitment to education in Ohio through Browns Give Back and the Stay in the Game! Network.

Harvey is a member of the team's leadership group as the Browns have established a culture where supporting the community is prioritized as a main measurement of success, along with winning consistently and creating an exceptional fan experience. In 2017, Harvey helped develop and launch the team's philanthropic mission of Browns Give Back, the team's community platform that is dedicated to education, youth football and volunteerism, with a focus of sparking meaningful, long-term impact in those three key areas.

The Cleveland Browns Foundation, in partnership with the Ohio Department of Education and Proving Ground at Harvard University, created in 2019 the Stay in the Game! Keep Learning, Every Day! Network, a statewide initiative designed to promote the importance of school attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism. The Browns are dedicated to improving the quality of education for students in Ohio by making investments that keep kids in school every day so they can succeed, highlighted by the Stay in the Game! Network. The team and its network partners and collaborators deploy attendance-focused campaigns, sharpening school improvement plans, launch attendance strategies and evaluate the impact to better support Ohio's schools and districts through collective impact.

The Stay in the Game! Network engages local school districts and promotes quality education by using attendance data and feedback from families to build a school-going culture, uncover and reduce common barriers to attendance and support opportunities for students to thrive. To further advance that effort, Harvey and the Foundation also work with an esteemed advisory board of industry experts, which includes various Ohio government and educational non-profit leaders.

For the 2024-25 school year, the Stay in the Game! Network has partnered with 100+ school districts, benefitting more than 325,000 students in Ohio. In June 2022, Columbus City Schools - the largest school district in the state - formally partnered with the Network to regularly engage with Haslam Sports Group's Columbus Crew to further address chronic absenteeism, along with Harvey's support.

No matter the circumstances, the Stay in the Game! Network will continue to encourage and support students to maintain a strong educational-going mindset to keep learning, every day, aligned with its overall goal to help end chronic absenteeism and provide all students equal opportunities to be successful. To learn more visit, visit stayinthegame.org.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Browns and Cleveland Browns Foundation also made significant contributions to address the digital divide with the focus of helping create equal educational opportunities for all students in Cleveland, which is currently cited as the community with the lowest availability of internet connectivity among the country's major cities. Along with other donations, the Browns distributed $350,000 to East Cleveland City Schools in 2020 to address educational needs related to the digital divide, as well as $60,000 to Maple Heights City Schools, made possible through the team's "Hats Off to Our Heroes" Fund. East Cleveland and Maple Heights are both partners of the Stay in the Game! Network.

Harvey also played a pivotal role in 2013 during the execution of an eight-month evaluation and transformation of the Cleveland Browns Foundation, established in 1999, that resulted strategic plans committed to education. Emphasizing attendance, the Foundation's mission is to improve the quality of education for students in Ohio by making investments that keep kids in school every day so they can succeed.

A member of the Browns since 2002, Harvey previously strengthened the club's local and national philanthropic efforts as vice president of community outreach. She was responsible for strategic planning and implementation of all community relations and youth football initiatives. Harvey also directed the allocation of resources related to player appearances, financial support and in-kind contributions.

Prior to joining the Browns, Harvey spent four years with the NHL's Anaheim Ducks, leading the team's community outreach efforts and the Ducks Care Foundation. She guided the Foundation as it issued more than $1 million of grants each year and oversaw many successful fundraising events, including the creation of Dux in Tux, which raised more than $1 million for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in the first three years.

Harvey is a member of the Browns' internal social justice leadership team and contributes to the CL3 Alliance, a social-justice collaboration that includes the Browns, Cavaliers and Guardians. She serves on the board of the Rainbow Babies and Children's Foundation and is a member of the Philanthropy Ohio Education Advisory Committee and the United Way of Greater Cleveland Public Policy subcommittee.

Harvey received a B.A. in education from Idaho State University and an M.A. in sports administration at the University of Northern Colorado. A native of Denver, Colo., Harvey resides in Brunswick with her husband, Neal, and three sons.

BROWNS FLAG IN SCHOOLS

Flag Football is one of the fastest growing sports and is now considered an official sport in the 2028 Olympics, and the Browns remain committed to growing the game through the football development model to ensure that both boys and girls have the opportunity to learn the game. Through the development of a turn-key flag football implementation model for elementary physical education teachers and their classes the Browns aim to prioritize flag football as an in-school physical activity that builds and maintains a foundation of healthy, lifelong physical activity for students.

HEAD COACH

COACHING STAFF

SCHOOL UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA | HOMETOWN PHILADELPHIA, PA. | NFL EXPERIENCE 19TH YEAR | BROWNS EXPERIENCE 5TH YEAR

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2020. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator.

In his four seasons as head coach the Browns are 37-30 (.552), the highest-winning percentage for the team over a four-year stretch since 1986-89. Stefanski has led the team to two postseason appearances and two 11-win seasons. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and 1953) as the only coaches in team history to record multiple seasons with at least 11 regular season wins.

Stefanski became the 16th coach to win the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award multiple times since its inception in 1957. Stefanski won the honors in 2020 and 2023 and joined Forrest Gregg (1976) as the only Browns coaches to win the award.

During the Browns 77-year history, the team has surpassed 6,000 scrimmage yards in a single season just seven times, but have reached the mark in all four seasons under Stefanski. Since 2020, the Browns are third in the NFL with an average of 139.6 rushing yards per game.

Stefanski has recorded a 24-10 (.706) record at Cleveland Browns Stadium, while not recording a losing record at home in any season. The Browns finished 8-1 at home in 2023, a team record for wins at home.

In his first season with the Browns, Stefanski led the team to its first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. He notched the most wins (11) by a first-year Browns head coach since Paul Brown had 12 in the team's inaugural season in 1946. Stefanski's 11 regular season wins were the most by a first-year head coach in 2020 and marked just the 11th time since 1970 a first-year coach has won 11 or more games. Stefanski was named the NFL Coach of the Year.

Stefanski's first season was unlike any other in NFL history as he and the club had to navigate the new realities and protocols presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. During his first offseason program, he and the staff had to install a new offensive and defensive system entirely virtual. Stefanski and his coaching staff didn't meet most of the players in-person until training Cleveland's 408 points were its second-most in franchise history, while the club also finished with its second-best total in scrimmage touchdowns (48) and tied for the second-most first downs (355). The Browns finished third in the league in rushing with an average of 148.4 yards per game (the team's best since 1978).

Stefanski helped several Browns earn individual honors as DE Myles Garrett and RT Jack Conklin were named first-team All-Pros by the Associated Press, while G Joel Bitonio and G Wyatt Teller each earned second team honors. Garrett, Bitonio and RB Nick Chubb were selected to the Pro Bowl.

He didn't just bring the team together on the field, he also brought them together in the community. As protests for social justice erupted all across the country during the summer of 2020, Stefanski carved out meeting time to allow the players time to discuss how they felt in the moment. They were also given time off during the funeral of George Floyd, whose controversial death spurred the movement. Stefanski then empowered them to "get in the arena" and use their platform to make a difference however they saw fit.

In 2021, the Browns led the NFL in rushing average with a 5.09 mark, which helped Chubb finish second in the league in rushing yards. The club's rush average was the highest by a Browns team since 1966. The team's 6,090 scrimmage yards were the fourth-most by the club in a single-season.

Defensively, the Browns finished the season fifth in the NFL in total defense, marking just the third time since 1970 that the team has ranked in the top-five and the club's highest finish since 1987. Garrett set the single-season franchise record with 16 sacks.

Stefanski helped five Browns earn Pro Bowl honors. Bitonio, Chubb, Garrett, Teller and CB Denzel Ward all earned Pro Bowl honors. Bitonio and Garrett also earned first team All-Pro honors, while Teller was named to the second team.

In 2022, the Browns recorded the third highest-rushing total in team history with 2,490. Chubb finished third in the NFL with 1,525 rushing yards. The team's 6,200 scrimmage yards were the second most in team history. Defensively, Garrett tied his own team single season record with 16 sacks, making him the NFL only player to record at least 16 sacks in 2021 and 2022. Bitonio, Chubb and Garrett each earned Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors, with Bitonio garnering first team All-Pro honors. Teller was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2023, the Browns claimed several on-field awards. In addition to Stefanski winning NFL Coach of the Year, DE Myles Garrett was named the Defensive Player of the Year, QB Joe Flacco won NFL Comeback Player of the Year and Defensive Coordinator Jim Schwartz was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. The Browns had seven players (Bitonio, Cooper, Garrett, TE David Njoku, LB Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah, Teller and Ward) selected to the Pro Bowl, the team's most since 1988.

Despite the club being ravaged by injuries, including season-ending injuries to Chubb, Conklin and QB Deshaun Watson, the team was able to win 11 regular season games. The Browns became the seventh team in the Super Bowl era (1966) to earn at least one win with four different starting quarterbacks in the same season. Watson finished the season 5-1 as a starter and Flacco went 4-1 as a starter, while becoming the first player in Browns history to throw for 300-yards in four consecutive games.

Defensively, the Browns led the NFL in several categories including total defense (270.2 yards per game), passing defense (164.7 yards per game), third down percentage (67-of-230 for 29.1 percent) and first downs allowed (253). The team's 270.2 net yards allowed per game were the fewest allowed in the NFL since the 2014 Seahawks (267.1) and the fewest allowed by a Browns team since 1957. The Browns set a franchise record for sacks in a season with 48. Cleveland also led the league by forcing 112 punts, the third-most forced by an NFL team since 1970.

Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, Stefanski spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the tight ends and one season (2016) as running backs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019.

In 2019, the Vikings posted a 10-6 record and earned their first road playoff win since January 9, 2005, after defeating the Saints, 26-20, in New Orleans. Three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl as RB Dalvin Cook and FB C.J. Ham were each named to their first career Pro Bowl with Cook voted a starter. QB Kirk Cousins was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In his first full year under Stefanski, Cousins set a single-season career high for passer rating with a 107.4 mark, fourth best in the NFL in 2019. Cousins also finished with a career-low six interceptions, while adding 26 touchdowns and a 69.1 completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in 2019. He set a Vikings record for completions in a season with 425 and finished with the second-most passing yards (4,298) and passer rating (107.4) in Vikings history.

With 1,135 rushing yards, Cook became the eighth player in Vikings history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and the first since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Despite missing the final two games of the season, Cook finished fourth in the NFL with 13 rushing touchdowns and seventh in scrimmage yards with 1,654.

WR Stefon Diggs set a career high with 1,130 receiving yards, giving him back-to-back 1,000-receiving yard seasons for the first time in his career. Diggs finished fourth in the NFL with an average of 17.9 yards per reception in 2019.

Stefanski was elevated from quarterbacks coach to interim offensive coordinator in Week 15 of the 2018 season and promptly guided the unit to two of its best showings of the season. In his first game calling plays, Minnesota scored a season-high 41 points and recorded 418 yards of offense en route to a 41-17 victory over the Dolphins.

As quarterbacks coach in 2017, the Vikings were forced to go to their backup, Case Keenum, early in the season after starter Sam Bradford went down with an injury. Keenum, who had completed 58 percent of his passes previously owned a 9-15 career record as a starter, went on to complete nearly 68 percent of his throws with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions while leading the Vikings to a record of 11-3.

In his lone season coaching the running backs in 2016, the Vikings battled injuries along the offensive line and to RB Adrian Peterson that caused the runner to miss 13 games. The running game leaned on veterans Jerick McKinnon and Matt Asiata as the duo combined for 941 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

As tight ends coach, Stefanski helped develop Pro Bowl TE Kyle Rudolph. In 2015, his unit helped clear the way for Adrian Peterson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,485 yards.

Stefanski was elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offensive seasons in Vikings history. Veteran QB Brett Favre signed with the team in mid-August and closed the season with 4,202 passing yards and 33 touchdowns. The Vikings finished the season 12-4 and won the NFC North.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski first worked with Childress during Eagles training camp in 2005 as part of the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, as assistant director of football operations, coordinating all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations.

A team captain as a senior in 2003, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won three Ivy League titles (2000, 2002 and 2003), and went 10-0 in 2003 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy League play.

Stefanski earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia.

In 2022, the Browns received the inaugural John B. Wooten Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. The award honors NFL teams that embody workplace diversity, equity and inclusion across the hierarchy. The Browns have filled their business and football operations departments with multiple fellowships and minority hires that have helped the organization grow. Stefanski, along with EVP and GM Andrew Berry, created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. Stefanski also hired Callie Brownson as Chief of Staff in 2020, who later became first woman to coach an NFL position group in a regular-season game.

In 2024, Stefanski and his family launched the Keepers Foundation. The foundation focuses on serving underprivileged kids in Northeast Ohio. The foundation held its first two events in the summer of 2024, Under the Lights with Coach Stefanski & Friends, a flag football tournament held at Cleveland Browns Stadium and Night Out by the Lake with Coach Stefanski & Friends, an evening out in Cleveland fundraiser.

The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a basketball standout at Penn and works in the front office of the Detroit Pistons. He has previously held executive positions with the NBA's New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers, Toronto Raptors and Memphis Grizzlies.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, have a daughter and two sons.

The Browns created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship in 2020, which is intended for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. In the program, the coach spends a full season with Cleveland’s coaching staff and assists coaches with week-to-week game plans and talent evaluations. The fellowship also provides the coach with a plethora of resources to network with other coaches, gain valuable knowledge on the implementation of NFL-level coaching methods, and improve their path to a professional coaching career.

The team created the fellowship to provide opportunities and experience to minority coaches, who have historically faced barriers in their pursuit of entry-level positions and promotions. The fellowship was named after Willis, who along with teammate Marion Motley, overcame many obstacles to become two of the first African-American professional football players in the modern era. Willis played with the Browns from 1946-53 and was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977.

2023 JIM BROWN CHANGEMAKERS AWARD

On December 13, 2023, the Cleveland Browns announced Cleveland Chef and Restaurateur Brandon Chrostowski as their 2023 Inspire Change Jim Brown Changemaker Award recipient. The Changemaker Award was announced in 2022 by the NFL as part of its Inspire Change initiative to recognize individuals in each teams' market for making a difference in their community across Inspire Change's four focus areas: education, economic advancement, police-community relations and criminal justice reform. Chrostowski was released from jail and went on his own culinary journey, founding the EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute, a 501©(3) organization in Cleveland that offers formerly incarcerated adults a foundation in the culinary and hospitality industry. As part of the Browns' social justice efforts, they have worked with Chrostowski and EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute since 2019

CHUBBTOWN

RB Nick Chubb's grandfather, Henry Chubb, great aunt and uncles, and other free blacks from North Carolina journeyed to Georgia and settled near a creek in the northwest corner of the state sometime between 1850 and 1864, that they will later call, Chubbtown. The town was founded as a colony of free African-Americans in 1864 and the settlement grew to include a church, school, post office, meeting hall and a lodge. It also had businesses such as a saw mill, cotton gin, wagon company, blacksmith, grist mill, syrup mill and several farms, all owned and operated by the Chubb family.

DAWG POUND CAPTAIN

The Dawg Pound Captain oversees getting Browns Fans as hype as possible before kick-off and is typically a local celebrity or former player. Whoever the captain is given a custom-made guitar and then smashes it onto the amp as Browns Fans lose their minds, aiding in making Cleveland Browns Stadium one of the most intimidating environments in the league.

- Supported "Build the Bridge" during My Cause, My Cleats in 2021. The Cleveland Browns partnered with the African-American Football Coaches Association to support "Build the Bridge," designed to empower, develop and unify high school football teams through meaningful interactions between programs of different racial and/or socio-economic demographics in Northeast Ohio.

BROWNS IN NIGERIA

The Browns were granted international marketing rights in Nigeria, part of the NFL International Marketing Initiative announced by the NFL three years ago. The program has opened international markets in Western Europe, South America, North America, Asia and Oceania. Nigeria marks the first market to open in Africa, giving the Browns sole marketing rights in the country of 218 million people. The Browns have deep ties to the country, as pro-bowl tight-end David Njoku's parents immigrated from Nigeria, and David himself was named chief of his familial village, Umuozu, in southern Nigeria. Browns players have long participated in the NFL Africa program, as defensive end Ogbo Okoronkwo, offensive tackle Hakeem Adeniji, and linebacker Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah all come from African descent.

OTTO GRAHAM UNVEILED AT FIRSTENERGY STADIUM

The Browns unveiled a statue of Otto Graham in front of Cleveland Browns Stadium on Saturday, September 9, 2019 as part of the team's "Fantennial Weekend" celebration.

"Otto's leadership, dedication and success has deserved this recognition as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame," Haslam Sports Group Partner, JW Johnson said. "A Browns legend, a member of our ring of honor and now this statue that will join the great Jim Brown here."

While his accolades earned him the statue, Graham, who died in December 2003 at the age of 82, will be remembered most for the person he was, not the football player.

BEYOND FOOTBALL

- Created the "Make Them Know Your Name" Foundation focused on heart health education, prevention, and treatment. Ward's father, Paul G. Ward Jr., passed away due to cardiac arrest that ultimately could have been prevented with earlier detection and intervention. "Make Them Know Your Name" is a mantra for Ward both on and off the field, inspired by his father.
- Started a scholarship foundation in his late father's name, for students in Bedford, Ohio. Paul was a long-time principal in the Bedford City School District.
- Has raised awareness for heart health through My Cause, My Cleats.
- Ward and the Make Them Know Your Name foundation covered monthly expenses for 21 people who struggled to sustain small businesses or employment in 2020 when the COVID-19 pandemic shut down the country. The people he helped ranged from a video production company owner, a theatre owner, family-run pizza shop owners and more. His donations last spring carried a significant impact on several businesses and people who could still keep their doors open today.

- Through foundation in 2022, made $150,000 donation supporting University Hospitals (UH) Harrington Heart & Vascular Institute. They will launch a community education initiative surrounding heart health.
- Hosted Coat Drives annually during the past three winters, giving away more than 1,000 coats for students at East Prep Village Prep Willard School, Marion C. Seltzer Elementary and Garfield Elementary School.
- Has been volunteering at shelters and food banks during Thanksgiving since he was a young child, including at the Greater Cleveland Food Bank.

HISTORY

The Cleveland Browns have one of the richest traditions in professional football, boasting eight league titles, including four NFL championships. In addition, 17 former Browns have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, the seventh-most of any NFL franchise.

The Browns were founded in 1945 as a charter member of the All-America Football Conference (AAFC), under businessman Arthur B. "Mickey" McBride, who would name Paul Brown the team's general manager and head coach. The franchise conducted a team naming contest, and the No. 1 choice was "Browns," highlighting Paul Brown's popularity in the area. In addition to Brown, that first team consisted of future Hall of Famers in center Frank Gatski, quarterback Otto Graham, offensive tackle/kicker Lou Groza, receiver Dante Lavelli, fullback Marion Motley and lineman Bill Willis.

In their first season in the AAFC (1946), the Browns posted a 12-2 record and went on to defeat the New York Yankees in the league's inaugural championship game, 14-9. They were equally successful off the field, averaging more than 57,000 fans to their home games at Municipal Stadium. The Browns would go on to claim the AAFC title in all four years of the league's existence, including a 15-0 record in 1948.

In 1950, the Browns were one of only three AAFC teams to merge with the National Football League, along with the San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Colts. Despite joining a more established league, Cleveland continued its success as they marched through the 1950 regular season with a 10-2 record before defeating the New York Giants in the playoffs and the Los Angeles Rams in the championship game. In fact, the Browns appeared in the NFL Championship game in each of their first seven years in the league (1950-56), coming away with three titles during that time (1950, 1954-55).

Quarterback Otto Graham guided the Browns to the championship game in all 10 of his professional seasons, helping the team capture seven titles (four AAFC and three NFL). Graham led the AAFC in passing all four years and led the NFL in passing twice (1953 and 1955), while totaling 23,584 passing yards combined in both leagues.

In 1957, the Browns selected Syracuse running back Jim Brown with the sixth overall pick of the NFL Draft. Brown would go on to lead the league in rushing that year with 942 yards in just 12 games as he was named NFL Rookie of the Year. He helped the Browns back to the NFL title game that season, although they dropped a 59-14 decision to the Detroit Lions. The following year, Brown again led the league in rushing, with 1,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. It marked one of seven times over the next eight years in which he rushed for more than 1,100 yards.

After going consecutive seasons without making the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1961-62), Blanton Collier took over for Paul Brown as head coach in 1963, and guided the team to a regular season record of 10-4 as they returned to the postseason, led by Jim Brown's career-high 1,863 rushing yards. The following year, the Browns put together a record of 10-3-1, capped by a 27-0 victory over Baltimore in the NFL Championship game. The 1964 season marked the first of three NFL title game appearances for the Browns over the next five years.

Following the 1965 season, Brown unexpectedly announced his retirement to pursue an acting career. In his final year, Brown rushed for 1,544 yards, the third straight year and eighth time in his nine NFL seasons that he topped the league's rushing chart.

Following Brown's retirement, Cleveland could not be derailed as the team qualified for the postseason in three of the next four years, including two NFL Championship game appearances (1968-69). Running back Leroy Kelly, an eighth-round draft choice of the team in 1964, rushed for more than 1,000 yards in three of those seasons (1966-68).

On Sept. 21, 1970, the Browns became part of history as they had the distinction of hosting the New York Jets in the first-ever Monday Night Football game, emerging with a 31-21 victory.

Collier wrapped up his coaching career following the 1970 season. He registered a 76-34-2 (.688) regular season record and guided the Browns to four NFL Championship games.

The decade of the 1970s started with the Browns making two trips to the playoffs in the first three years. Then came a stretch in which the Browns missed the postseason seven straight seasons (1973-79). In the final year of that span, however, the Browns, under the guidance of second-year Head Coach Sam Rutigliano, put together a record of 9-7 and affectionately earned the nickname of the "Kardiac Kids." Of the team's nine victories that year, seven came by seven points or less. Two of those wins occurred in overtime, while three others were decided within the final two minutes of regulation.

This excitement continued into the following season of 1980. After starting the year 2-3, the Browns reeled off five straight wins and victories in eight of their next nine. Of those eight triumphs, six came by six points or less. On the final week of the season, Don Cockroft's 22-yard field goal with less than two minutes to play lifted the Browns to a 27-24 victory over the Bengals at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, as Cleveland captured its first AFC Central crown since 1971 and its first playoff berth since 1972.

In 1985, the franchise underwent a makeover as Marty Schottenheimer was named the team's sixth full-time head coach and the club selected University of Miami quarterback Bernie Kosar – a Youngstown native who grew up in Boardman, Ohio – in the NFL Supplemental Draft. By midseason of his rookie year, Kosar had cracked the starting lineup, leading the Browns to wins in four of his first six starts. Cleveland went on to post an 8-8 record that year, which was good for first place in the AFC Central division. That season, running backs Earnest Byner and Kevin Mack both topped the 1,000-yard rushing mark, a feat that would not be accomplished again by a pair of running backs on the same team in the same season until 2008.

The Browns seemed poised for their first playoff win since 1969 as they held a 21-3 third-quarter lead over the Dolphins at the Orange Bowl before Miami reeled off 21 unanswered points to come away with a 24-21 victory. With Kosar at the helm, the Browns would win three AFC Central division titles over the next four years (1986-87, 1989) and qualify for the playoffs on each occasion. Three of those four appearances resulted in a spot in the AFC Championship game, only to be stopped short of their ultimate destination by the Denver Broncos each time.

In Aug. of 1991, the Browns moved into a new administrative complex in Berea and began holding training camp there in July of the following year.

On Nov. 6, 1995, it was announced that the Browns had signed a deal to relocate to Baltimore for the following season. In Feb. 1996, the NFL announced that the Browns would be “deactivated” for three years and that a new stadium would be built for a new Browns team – either as an expansion team or one that would move from another city – that would begin play in 1999. Cleveland NFL Football (Cleveland Browns Trust) was formed by the NFL with Bill Futterer as President and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue as Trustee. The Trust represented the NFL in the stadium design and construction, managed the sale of suites and club seats, and sold Permanent Seat Licenses and season tickets. In March 1998, at the owners meeting in Orlando, Tagliabue announced that the Browns would be an expansion team rather than a relocated team. On Sept. 8, 1998, the NFL awarded the new Cleveland Browns franchise to a group led by Alfred Lerner, and the NFL formally transferred ownership on Oct. 23, 1998.

The new Cleveland Browns franchise played their first game on Aug. 9, 1999 when they edged the Dallas Cowboys, 20-17 in overtime, in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Fawcett Stadium in Canton to open the preseason. They played their first regular season game on Sept. 12 against their long-time rival, the Pittsburgh Steelers at FirstEnergy Stadium. Their initial regular season victory occurred in dramatic fashion as a 56-yard Hail Mary from quarterback Tim Couch to wide receiver Kevin Johnson as time expired lifted the Browns to a 21-16 decision over the Saints at the Superdome, in what would be the first of two wins in that first season back for Cleveland.

On Oct. 23, 2002, owner Alfred Lerner passed away and his son, Randy, took over control of the team. Later that year, the Browns won their final two regular season games to finish with a record of 9-7, earning them their first playoff berth since returning to the league just four years earlier.

With the third overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, the Browns selected left tackle Joe Thomas. He played every offensive snap for the Browns from his rookie season through Week 7 in 2017, when his streak ended at 10,363, the longest streak in NFL history. He also became the fifth player and the only lineman in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first 10 seasons.

The team unveiled a Ring of Honor at Cleveland Browns Stadium at halftime of the home opener against the Kansas City Chiefs on Sept. 19, 2010. The inaugural class consisted of the franchise’s first 16 Hall of Famers, as the name of each man was permanently displayed on the stadium’s upper deck facade. In 2012, the years of the team’s eight league championships were added to the southeast end of the facade. In 2019, Clay Matthews was inducted into the Browns Ring of Honor. In 2021, Hall of Fame WR Mac Speedie was inducted. Joe Thomas was inducted in 2023.

On Aug. 2, 2012, Dee and Jimmy Haslam agreed to purchase controlling interest of the Cleveland Browns from Randy Lerner. The NFL approved the Haslams as the owners on Oct. 16.

On Oct. 29, 2017, the Browns played their first regular season game outside of the United States when they faced the Minnesota Vikings at Twickenham Stadium in London, England.

The Browns selected QB Baker Mayfield with the first overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft and in just 13 starts, he set the NFL record for touchdown passes by a rookie with 27.

Kevin Stefanski was named Head Coach on Jan. 13, 2020 and Andrew Berry was named Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager on Jan. 28, 2020. On January 15, 2020, Mac Speedie was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2020.

Kevin Stefanski led the Browns to an 11-5 record in 2020 to clinch the team’s first playoff berth since 2002 and ending the league’s longest playoff drought for a club. The team then went on to grab their first postseason victory since the 1994 season, beating the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Wild Card Round on Jan. 10, 2021.

DE Myles Garrett set a single-season franchise record after recording 16 sacks in both 2021 and 2022. On Oct. 16, 2022, Garrett passed Clay Matthews Jr. (62.0) for most sacks in Browns’ franchise history. RB Nick Chubb (1,525 rushing yards) became the second back in team history to achieve 1,500 rushing yards in a single season (Jim Brown in 1958, 1963, & 1965). In addition, Joe Thomas was inducted into the Browns’ Ring of Honor and named a first-ballot Hall of Famer on Feb. 9, 2023, five years after his retirement.

The Browns capped off the 2023 season with an 11-6 record and secured a spot in the postseason. The 11 regular season wins tied for second-most in team history, trailing only the 1986 team, which had 12 wins. Head Coach Kevin Stefanski (2020 and 2023) joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and 1953) as the only coaches in team history to record multiple seasons with at least 11 regular season wins. The team finished with an 8-1 record at Cleveland Browns Stadium and set a team record for wins at home. Stefanski was named the NFL Coach of the Year for the second time. DE Myles Garrett became the first Browns player to win NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Coordinator Jim Schwartz was named the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year as the Browns defense led the NFL in several categories including total defense, allowing just 270.2 yards per game, the fewest allowed by a Browns team since 1957. QB Joe Flacco was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year after recording a 4-1 record as a starter following a season ending injury to QB Deshaun Watson, who finished the season 5-1 as a starter.

#14 OTTO GRAHAM

From 1946-1955, Otto Graham guided the Browns to 10 league championship games and NFL Championships in 1950, 1954 and 1955. He led the NFL in passing for two seasons and recorded 23,584 career passing yards. In 1953, Graham finished the season with a 64.73 completion percentage, the highest in club history. He was an All-League selection from 1951-55. Graham was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1965.

#32 JIM BROWN

Brown was the NFL's leading rusher in eight seasons and holds the Browns franchise record for career rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns. An All-America selection from Syracuse in 1956, Brown was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1957. He participated in nine consecutive Pro Bowls from 1958-66 and was voted NFL most valuable player in 1957, 1958 and 1965. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

#45 ERNIE DAVIS

After being selected first in the 1961 NFL draft, the Browns acquired Ernie Davis in a trade with the Washington Redskins. Tragically, Davis passed away two years later from leukemia and never played a professional game. A star running back from Syracuse, Davis was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy in 1961 and guided the Orangemen to their only national championship the same year.

#46 DON FLEMING

Don Fleming was selected by the Chicago Cardinals in the 28th round of the 1959 NFL draft. He was traded to the Browns in 1960 and was a mainstay at the safety position. From 1960-63, Fleming intercepted 10 passes and was named to The Sporting News All-AFC team in 1962. During the 1963 offseason, Fleming and a co-worker were sadly electrocuted working a construction job. His passing came a few weeks after Ernie Davis' death.

#76 LOU GROZA

Lou Groza is Cleveland's all-time top scorer with 1,349 points on 234 FGs, 641 PATs and one TD. He scored at least one point in 107 consecutive games and his last-second field goal sealed the 1950 NFL Championship for the Browns. Originally an offensive left tackle, Groza suffered a back injury which converted him into a kicking specialist from 1961-67. He was an All-NFL tackle on six occasions and was the NFL Player of the Year in 1954. Groza was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

CLEVELAND BROWNS RING OF HONOR

To pay homage to their great history - one of the richest in the NFL - the Browns unveiled the Cleveland Browns Ring of Honor during a special ceremony at halftime of the 2010 regular season home opener, against Kansas City on Sept. 19. The initial group of inductees consisted of the 16 former Browns enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The names of these 16 greats are prominently displayed on the facade of the upper deck of the stadium. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the facade at the southeast end of Cleveland Browns Stadium. On Sept. 22, 2019, Clay Matthews was inducted to the Browns Ring of Honor. Matthews, a first-round pick in 1978, played 16 seasons (1978-93) with the Browns and is considered one of the league's best linebackers and most durable players. In 2021, Mac Speedie, who played seven seasons (1946-52) with the Browns was inducted into the Browns Ring of Honor. In 2023, Joe Thomas, who played 11 seasons (2007-17) with Browns and compiled the longest consecutive snap streak in NFL history with 10,363, was inducted.

HOME OF THE CLEVELAND BROWNS

Cleveland Browns Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, passionate group of people who are the world's greatest fans. At Cleveland Browns Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes game days with the Browns a memorable experience.

Cleveland Browns Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium. The lakefront is home of the Cleveland Browns, where the legendary Coach Paul Brown established Cleveland's first football dynasty in the 1940s and 18 Cleveland Browns established their credentials for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. In 2010, the team's Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinees were further honored by the unveiling of their names in the Ring of Honor, which recognizes their contributions to the Cleveland Browns organization. The names of these 19 greats, as well as LB Clay Matthews, who was added in 2019, are permanently displayed on the facade of the stadium's upper deck.

Cleveland Browns Stadium is a celebration of the city's renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the North Coast Harbor, Cleveland Browns Stadium is located next to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and the Great Lakes Science Center. While on the south side of the stadium, fans can grab items to represent their favorite team at the Pro Shop.

NOT JUST FOR BROWNS GAMES

Cleveland Browns Stadium also plays host to various major events such as concerts, family shows, and other sporting events and is available for private functions in its 15+ premium event spaces such as wedding receptions, proms, holiday parties and business luncheons.

This summer, the stadium saw the Rolling Stones hit the stage at Cleveland Browns Stadium in June as part of the Hackney Diamonds Tour and in August, WWE SummerSlam, one of WWE's largest annual events, will return to Cleveland for the first time since 1996. At the start of September, for the first time ever together live will be Billy Joel and Rod Stewart at Cleveland Browns Stadium.

The venue was also the host site for the 2021 NFL Draft. In 2022, the venue welcomed Def Leppard and Motley Crue for "The Stadium Tour", followed by a Machine Gun Kelly for a sold-out, hometown concert on the "Mainstream Sell Out" global arena tour, of which Cleveland Browns Stadium was the only stadium-show. The stadium also hosted Top Golf Live Stadium Tour late in the summer months. The venue also played host to Monster Jam in the 2022 and 2023 summers.

In 2017 and 2019, the stadium played host to international soccer doubleheaders featuring the U.S. Men's National Team during the Concacaf Gold Cup.

In 2018, Cleveland Browns Stadium also welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for a friendly against China PR and two major stadium concert tours – Taylor Swift's Reputation Tour and the JAY-Z and Beyoncé OTR II tour.

In 2017, the facility also hosted a U2 concert. On June 5, 2016, the stadium welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for the second leg of a two-game friendly series against Japan.

In 2015, Cleveland Browns Stadium welcomed One Direction and Luke Bryan for top-notch concerts. In 2012, "The Brothers of the Sun Tour," featuring Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw, came to Cleveland Browns Stadium. The stadium has also played host to Kenny Chesney concerts in 2007 and 2008, as well as The Three Tenors (2000), George Strait (2000) and *NSYNC (2001).

On May 29, 2013, the U.S. Men's National Team hosted Belgium for the first international soccer match at the stadium since 2006.

On six occasions since 2005, the High School Charity Games have been staged at Cleveland Browns Stadium, showcasing some of the top area high school football talent. College football has been a regular on Cleveland Browns Stadium's docket. On September 21, 2013, Tuskegee University and Winston Salem State University squared off in the Third Annual Cleveland Classic HBCU football game. From 2006-2013, a college game was played at the stadium each year except 2010. Additionally, the stadium hosted the Ohio State and University of Michigan hockey teams for Faceoff on the Lake in February of 2023.

In July 2021, the Cleveland Browns and CrossCountry Mortgage, LLC, one of the nation's largest and fastest growing retail mortgage lenders, announced a long-term partnership that includes naming rights for the team's "CrossCountry Mortgage Campus" training and administrative complex in Berea. The building originally opened in August of 1991 and has undergone many renovations since its debut.

The 115,000 square foot building has two floors, both of which have been renovated in recent years. In addition to making significant investments to improve the CrossCountry Mortgage Campus in recent years which included an extension of their lease with the City of Berea, Haslam Sports Group has acquired a number of properties in the area surrounding the fields and main building, which opened in 1991. Plans are currently being developed to align with the team's strategic vision and ultimate expansion of its home at the CrossCountry Mortgage Campus. The primary goal is to ensure the Browns continue to provide the organization, players and Browns fans with first-class resources in all aspects of football and business operations, as well as enhanced opportunities to host additional events in the Northeast Ohio community.

During the 2013 offseason, the facility's second floor underwent a 36,000 square foot renovation. The new space boasts an open floor plan and was designed to create a vibrant, energetic and collaborative space for the club's football and business operations. The new space houses a state-of-the-art media studio where radio and television production take place in-house.

Connected to the facility is the team's 60,000 square foot indoor field house. The facility also hosts four regulation-size natural grass practice fields ideal for year-round football operations, including the club's training camp.

The Cleveland Browns and City of Berea agreed to a lease amendment that guarantees the team's facility will remain in Berea through at least 2028.

BROWNS UNIFORMS

In April 2024, the Browns brought back a piece of their storied history with the 2024 season, as the helmets will once again feature the white face mask.

“We are excited to honor our storied history through the return of the white face mask,” Cleveland Browns Partner JW Johnson said. “As we continue to write the next chapter of Browns’ history, we reflect on different eras, such as the Kardiatic Kids and the return of the franchise, that led us to this place in time.”

From 1975-1995, and again from 1999-2005, the Browns’ helmets featured white face masks. They were associated with the Kardiatic Kids and the AFC Championship era of the Browns.

For the 2023 season, the Browns unveiled white alternate throwback helmets as part of the White Out Series, presented by Browns partner DUDE Wipes. For three games in 2023, the Browns wore a white alternate helmet with the same white throwback jerseys the team wore in 2021, returning a look that hasn’t been worn by the Browns since the franchise was born in 1946. The helmet included an orange and brown stripe down the middle and marked the first time the Browns have worn a non-orange helmet in over seven decades.
